

Megan Lechner, MSN, RN, CNS, SANE-A, SANE-P

Left to right: Nominator Christina Oldfield, RN, Award Recipient Megan Lechner, MSN, RN, CNS, SANE-A, SANE-P, and Nominator Kathy Cook, M.D.

Megan has been a nurse for 21 years, starting her nursing career in 1997. Megan is currently the Nursing Director of the UHealth Memorial Forensic Nurse Examiner Team and principal investigator for Women's Health Study. Additionally, she is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs.

Megan is a passionate forensic nurse who has, both directly and indirectly, touched the lives of thousands who have been victims of violence.

Megan, congratulations on your Nursing Award.

Mary Jane Reed, RN

Left to right: Award Recipient Mary Jane Reed, RN and Nominator John Kucera, M.D.

Mary Jane has been a nurse for 44 years, graduating in 1977 with an Associate in Nursing from El Paso Community College, which later became Pikes Peak Community College. She has been a Care Team Nurse for the Peak Vista Developmental Disabilities Health Center for the past five years.

Mary Jane emphasizes patient safety, focusing on reducing patient falls and making sure all preventative measures are in place. Her interpersonal skills have earned her accolades from both patients and families.

Mary Jane, congratulations on your Nursing Award.

Elizabeth Spradlin, RN, BSN, TCRN

Award Recipient Elizabeth Spradlin, RN, BSN, TCRN

Elizabeth has more than 20 years of practical healthcare experience, beginning her career as a Medical Specialist in 1997. She has been the Trauma Program Manager at UHealth Memorial Hospital North for three years.

Elizabeth was instrumental in highlighting the Nursing Peer Review and is the sole reason behind the Nursing Peer Review committee at the hospital.

Elizabeth, congratulations on your Nursing Award.

Deborah Stover, RN, BSN, CEN

Award Recipient Deborah Stover, RN, BSN, CEN

Deborah has been a nurse for 34 years, earning her Bachelors of Nursing from Fort Hayes State University in 1984. For the past five years, Deborah has been the Team Charge Nurse for the Critical Care Ground Transport Team at UCHHealth LifeLine Transport.

Deborah has the ability to rapidly assess a situation and perform a critical intervention in a matter of fact way, and always advocates doing the right thing for the patient.

Deborah, congratulations on your Nursing Award.